

Eunjung Choi

As a conscious channel of multi-dimensional energies, Eunjung Choi learned her intuitive gifts through spirit guides since early childhood. She has been assisting people around the world in the past 12 years to help them live the life of their dreams. She channels Language of Light that awakens your highest soul purpose. She is also an earth vortex activist who's been traveling to sacred sites around the world to weave the planetary grids of love and light. Originally from South Korea, Eunjung now leads workshops, retreats, and sacred journeys around the world with his beloved partner Yves.

www.latriaterranova.com

Yves Nager

Yves, Switzerland native, started his own transformative journey in 2005 when he lost 3 close family members within only half a year. After his own severe burn out experience, he travelled to Hawaii where he learned to heal himself and others through local healers and shamans. Yves is passionate about supporting people to transcend limitations into new possibilities and transform challenges into freedom. He is also very gifted in animal healing. Yves integrates a unique combination of life coaching, healing, hypnosis as well as presence centered awareness in his sessions and workshops.

www.yvesnager.com